Armed with his passion, unique style, and abilities, Derek C. Woodruff launched his career in artistic floral design at the young age of 16. He initially studied the trade at Jackson Area Career Center where he became certified by the Michigan Floral Association (CF). He also studied floral design at Lansing Community College and Michigan State University, and then with the American Institute of Floral Designers.

His early experience in the retail floral setting allowed him to learn the business and hone his technical skills, which prepared him for creating his own floral design business in 2009. Learn more about Derek during the classes!
